MONCREIF'S BANNER CROWD

LADIES' DAY MARKED BY LARGEST ATTENDANCE SEEN ON FLORIDA COURSE.

Ragman Keeps Up His Winning Streak and Scores Fifth Successive Victory, Thanks to Stupid Tactics of Riders of Rival Racers.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 15.—This was ladies' day at Moncreif Park and the largest crowd that ever witnessed a horse race in this part of the country was in attendance. Even standing room was a premium. As a special attraction, Madam Marquette gave an exhibition with her society horses and with her wonderful high jumper, St. Patrick. This feature was given on the track in front of the grandstand between the races. The racing itself was keenly contested, the fourth being the only race in which there was little spirit to the contest. In this race, the jockeys riding the other horses permitted Ragman to obtain a long lead during the first quarter, and they then continued to rate their mounts, doubtless with the expectation that the pace-maker would come back to them. Ragman, however, went on by himself and cantered home the winner with a lead of six lengths.

Jockey Dave Nicol rode two winners, Sylvan Dell and Ferrand Cecilian. The former, running in the colors of James McLaughlin, came from behind in the stretch and won going away. Ethon, winner of the fifth race, was the medium for heavy backing, both in the local ring and elsewhere. At post time his backers were eagerly accepting the 8 to 5 that two or three of the venturesome layers still kept up. Ethon was boosted $300 over his entered price of $600 by R. D. Williams. The horse was protected and bought in by J. Hewitt.

W. D. Babcock retired from the game as an owner for a few hours today. He disposed of Nethermost and Sandy Hill to Jack McDonald of Detroit this morning, but afterwards repurchased Sandy Hill. McDonald will purchase several more horses before the meeting closes.

J. Beyer left for New York tonight and the horses owned by P. S. P. Randolph will leave next week. Several of the horsemen racing here have announced their intention of shipping to Jamestown within a few days. Just now it looks as if the Jamestown delegation will be made up of P. M. Burch, David Dunlop, part of James McLaughlin's string, Frank Lightfoot, P. J. Miles, P. M. Walker, P. S. P. Randolph and J. M. Goode. There are some others who have not as yet fully made up their minds, but it looks as if ten or twelve carloads will make up the shipment.

Frank Lightfoot is going to Jamestown with the idea of getting his good jumper, Dr. Pillow, into condition for the Pimlico meeting. This horse has been entered in all of the big jumping stakes to be run in the east during the coming season, and his trainer looks for him to be one of the cracks of the year over the sticks.

HEADLEY STUD CUT DOWN.

Lexington, Ky., March 15.—Hal Price Headley, who has been in charge of Beaumont and La Belle Farms since his father, H. P. Headley, became an invalid in the spring of 1908, has been gradually curtailing the stud until now only the stallion, Orangeton, and twenty-eight mares and twenty yearlings remain. It is, however, not to be understood that there are no other thoroughbreds at these farms, which comprise 1,300 acres and are equipped with 340 boxes for the housing of horses. Messrs. H. K. Knapp, Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., F. R. Hitchcock, George Russell, Homer Selby, T. P. Hayes and others have yearlings there.

The Headley mares are: Ave Marie (dam of Icaria, Medallion and Maxine Dale), bay, 11, by Bellarmine—Sister Superior, by Radios.

Charity (dam of Lady Bramble, Widow's Mite and Philanthropist), bay, 19, by Spendthrift—Kalula, by King Alfonso.

Chippiquin (dam of Queen's Daughter and Cheppin), chestnut, 10, by Florizel II.—Chinkara, by Galopin.

Chum (half-sister to Ben Eder), brown, 8, by Ladaworkmate, by Bulwark.

Cutpurse (sister to City Bank and Central Trust), bay, 12, by Meddler—Money Box, by Onondaga or Rayon d'Or.

Dreamy Eyes (dam of Star Eyes), chestnut, 8, by Orangeton—Don Hera, by Hanover.

Easterling (dam of Koenigin Luise and Christinas), bay, 13, by St. Andrew—Easter, by Vicksburg.

Elsie French (dam of Elsa F.), bay, 11, by Trenton—One, by Orme.

Genius, chestnut, 14, by Paderewski—Ability, by Scottish Chief.

Jhansi McKenna (dam of Miss McKenna and Jack McKenna), chestnut, 13, by Order—Vagantes, by Vagabond.

Lady Compton, chestnut, 9, by Galopin Lad—Misdeal, by Landmark or Farnsee.

Lady Savoy, brown, 8, by Marion—Lady Ayr, by Ayrshire.

May Hempstead (dam of Golden Green and Tsara), chestnut, 14, by Patron—Lillie Hempstead, by Longfellow.

Miss Hudson, chestnut, 13, by Hanover—Shadow Dance, by Falsetto.

New Leaf, bay, 11, by St. Hilaire—Reformation, by St. Honorat.

Nigella (dam of Oracle), chestnut, 8, by Orangeton—Nellie C., by King Alfonso.

Pauline Derringer, chestnut, 9, by Kingston—Sultana, by Princess Orna.

Over, by Hanover.

Proclaim (dam of Elizabeth Harwood), bay, 11, by St. Hilaire—Proclaim, by Petronel.

Spanker (dam of John Carroll and Gallivant), bay, 16, by St. Serf—Lady Gay, by St. Gatien.

Star Dreamer (dam of Fandango and Pocotaligo), bay, 10, by Star Ruby—Crisaliba, by St. Modred.

Tart (dam of Scarab), brown, 11, by Order—Tartlet, by Bendigo.

Tehera (half-sister to Royal Onyx), brown, 3, by Nasstrum—Oneck Queen, by Ben Strome.

Narco (half-sister to Sheriff Bell), brown, 4, by G. W. Johnson—Louise, by Rotherhill.

Dorval (half-sister to Annie Max), bay, 7, by Darchin—Annie Lewis, by Flood.

Ollie Belle (dam of Beaupont, Pimpante and Our Nugget), chestnut, 12, by Charaxes—Ada Belle, by Colus.

Thoughtless (dam of Leona Beresford), brown, 10, by Orangeton—Happy Sally II., by Petrarch or Blantyre.

Tweedledum (dam of Gold Badge and Jaunt), by Wagner or Knight of Ellerslie—Flibbertigibbet, by Kingfisher.

The last-named four of these are owned by Hal Price Headley.

GOSSIP FROM THE EASTERN TRACKS.

Trainers Going Right Along with Their Charges in Preparation for Approaching Season.

New York, March 15.—The fastest work done at Sheepshead Bay yesterday was accomplished by A. Blute's platers, Rustem and Banbury. They galloped a quarter on the main track in 25. Rustem and Banbury recently returned from Juarez, where they raced all winter. They are fitter than most of the horses at the Bay, and it is the intention of Blute to keep them going just enough to retain their condition. They will be ready to race at Aqueduct. Pleasant, spring like weather continues and if it holds out, the racers which go to the post at Aqueduct next month will be much farther advanced than horses usually are in mid-April.

Sam Hildreth sent his big stable out in two sets. The one which included Fayette, Joe Madden, Restigouche and Jeanne d'Arc breezed quarters in 27. The one made up of Montgomery, Firestone, Woodcraft, Dalmatian and Rose Queen did not do as well by about a second. From the way Hildreth is breezing Restigouche and Jeanne d'Arc, one would infer that he intends to have them ready for Aqueduct. Restigouche will just about be his representative in the Carter Handicap. The Commando gelding came to hand early last season, it will be recalled, and came out for the first race at Brooklyn Handicap from his stable companion, King James, and Mr. Keene's Celt.

Enoch Wishard indulged the string of Ort Wells two-year-olds he is training for John A. Drake in strong gallops on the yearling track at the Bay. They were frisky enough, and perhaps there is a good racer or so among them. But they were small when they came up from Kentucky, and they do not seem to improve like other eastern youngsters.

Nimbus, which will be ready for the first race at Aqueduct if his owner wants to start him, headed George Odom's youngsters. The Star Shoot gelding breezed a half in 58. The two-year-olds that went along did not attempt anything so ambitious. They breezed three-eighths in 42 or 43.

Max Hirsch, who was very successful at Juarez, was at the Bay early in the morning. Hirsch arrived on the course while Hildreth's horses were doing their stunts. Hirsch sought in vain among the Hildreth horses for Livonia, the daughter of Star Shoot he sold last fall. Livonia is not galloping with the most forward members of the Hildreth bunch. She was lame last fall and the Missouri horseman is going along slowly with her.

W. P. Fine arrived from Kentucky yesterday with three horses belonging to the veteran breeder, John Mackey. Mr. Mackey will have these horses trained and sell them off as they win.

"Lucky Jack" McGinnis, who is among the railbirds these days, says that if trainer Rowe does not develop another Saxonby or a Collin from the present crop of Castleton-bred youngsters, a lot of sharp-eyed persons will be mistaken. It is common gossip, by the way, that McGinnis and his former jockey, Joe Notter, will form a turf partnership before the local season opens. Notter, who will not return to Europe, weighs 130 pounds. He says he can reduce to make 115 or less, but it is believed such a task will be a hardship. Notter has sold his money and is said to be fairly well fixed.

George Odom thinks his four-year-old filly, France, will be able to race this year. She broke down last spring at Pimlico and Odom promptly retired her for the rest of the season. France has wintered well and seems to have recovered from this ailment to such an extent that Odom hopes she can go to the post early in June.

R. Miller, who trains and handles the Fanshawe stable, showed eight of his two-year-olds, four fillies by Islington and four colts by Heno. The colts stepped along quarters in 26 and 27.

Nine two-year-olds in charge of trainer R. King were worked three-eighths in 41 and 42. He expects great things of two of the lot that are by Orangeton.

Superintendent James Dunphy of Gravesend received word from J. Hynes to have his stable in readiness, as he intends to leave for New York in a few days with twenty-one horses. He says that all of his horses have wintered well and are ready to go right along with stiff training.

T. Welsh had out all of the Newcastle horses and allowed his two-year-olds to go quarters in 27 and 29. They all moved off in a bunch as though breaking from the barrier. In explanation Mr. Welsh said that he always made it a point in the training of two-year-olds to have them well schooled at the barrier before sending them to the races. He thinks it the most important part of their training.

Word has been received that A. G. Blakeley will soon arrive from Oakland, where he has been racing the past winter. He will bring with him a stable of fifteen horses.

GOSSIP FROM KENTUCKY TRAINING GROUNDS.

Louisville, Ky., March 15.—D. N. Prewitt, who recently sold his Kentucky Derby candidate, Ben K. Sleet, to Ed Corrigan, was a recent visitor at Churchill Downs, where he has some two-year-olds in training in the stable of W. S. Hopkins. He reports that trainer Joe Everman will ship his crack sprinter, T. M. Green, here from Jacksonville, Fla., as soon as he finds some one coming this way. Mr. Prewitt says he will likely make Evergreen, the dam of T. M. Green, with Filigrane, the sire of the $99,000 turf winner, Accountant. The mare lost her foal to a colic in the fall of last year's Kentucky Derby winner, Watergreen. She is a remarkable producer. Her first foal was the highly-tried John McAllister, then she dropped T. M. Green and followed that up by producing that good racer, Dixie Knight. W. S. Hopkins has a promising two-year-old colt out of her by Saintilant II. in training at Churchill Downs and Mr. Prewitt has a yearling at his Boyle County farm out of her by Resolute II., the Australian-bred horse that sired Snow. Evergreen is a daughter of Orangeton, and is out of Tenderline, by Ten Broeck, from the family that produced Cunard, sire of the California Derby winner, Turret. She might have made a brilliant record on the turf, only she was born with a club-foot and, as a consequence, could never be trained. She is only a young matron, having been foaled in 1909.

NAMES OF NEWCASTLE STABLE JUVENILES.

New York, March 15.—The proprietors of the Newcastle Stable yield to no American horsemen this year in the matter of names for their two-year-olds. Twelve youngsters constitute the two-year-old division of Thomas Welsh's string at Gravesend, and taste and good judgment were used in giving them their titles. The Newcastle youngsters are homebred. The three Adam colts are Seth, Adam Bode and Zeus, and they are from Purity, Grace Gumberts and Shaft. The Adam fillies are Leah, Bashli, Herodia and Ballymena. They are from Cereta, Disadvantage, Wild Thyme and Ellangowan.

Spooner's half-brother, by Sempronius, will be known to fame as Danger Mark. His dam is the Mariner mare, Flirtineer. The Orlando—Vassari colt is called Aristote; the Handspring—Miss Maxim filly, Ballet Dance; the Watercress—Privateer colt, Mutineer; the Ben Strome—The Hummer colt, Northumberland; and the Star Shoot—Queen Regent colt, Royal Meteor.

CLERGYMAN SAYS BETTING IS NOT IMMORAL.

Moral and Reform Council of Canada Not a Unit for Passage of Miller Bill.

"The Moral and Social Reform Council of Canada is not a unit on the Miller bill, and that is one of the reasons why it will fail," says the Canadian Sportsman. "Rev. Father Minehan, the rector of St. Helen's Roman Catholic Church, Toronto, preached on gambling last Sunday. He is a member of the Moral and Social Reform Council, too, and he represents by far the largest church in Canada in the number of adherents, though it does not include so many political or sensation-mongering parsons. Father Minehan did not deal in rubbishy and ridiculous statements. He told his congregation honestly that it was not sinful or immoral to make a bet and that there was no distinction in the subjects of betting. The man who bets on stock fluctuations is the same as the man who bets on any other outcome of events. Every man of sufficient intelligence to keep him out of the idiot asylum knows this just as well as Father Minehan, but few of the parsons have the moral courage to say so. Father Minehan's sermon was not reported in the Globe, another sample of the bigotry that once fair-minded papers have shown in the treatment of this subject all through the chapter.

"I think parsons keep on repeating from the pulpit the fallacy that makes a betting a criminal on one day and in one place which is legal at another time and place is a monstrosity. They are not supposed to exercise reason or anything but blind prejudice in dealing with 'moral' questions. Not a parson in Toronto but knows that very contrary to be true. Not one but knows that he may preach the gospel in his own or any other church, but if he attempts to do so in the Queen's Park, or any other public place, he will be arrested and sent to jail if he does not pay a fine for his preaching."

It may well be guessed that the sporting editor of the Toronto Globe had the threatened anti-racing legislation in Canada in mind when he penned the following plaint:

"Lacrosse has no special trouble of its own. It suffers, though, in a general way, from the common 'sissy' tendency of the day. The feminist spirit is abroad and active in the land. We are all to be made mushy bodies, with no difficulties to face, no battles to fight, no temptations to overcome. A lot of old women is to be produced and the bent of youth is to be altered to fit. Games of personal contact and strenuous effort are to be tamely because they demand virile qualities and purposes. Not so will Canada produce an enduring or a dominant race of people, able to maintain their position among the nations of the world."

DELIRIUM FAILS AS FAVORITE.

Whitney Horse Finishes Fourth in Lincolnshire Handicap, Which Is Won by Cinderello.

London, March 15.—Harry Payne Whitney's Delirium was a 4 to 1 favorite for the Lincolnshire Handicap at Lincoln today, but did no better than finish fourth. The race was won by Cinderello, which Forerunner II. second and August Belmont's Norman III. third. The betting was 9 to 1 against Cinderello, 40 to 1 against Forerunner II. and 23 to 1 against Norman III. Twenty-seven horses started in the race. Summary:

Horse	Weight	Distance
Lincolnshire Handicap of 1,500 sovereigns, for three-year-olds and over, distance one mile straight.
E. F. Schiff's Cinderello, 5, 100	100	100
James Hare's Forerunner II., 6, 101	101	101
A. Belmont's Norman III., 5, 114	114	114

The Brocklesby Trial Stakes, a handicap for three-year-olds and over, distance five furlongs, was won by Corinthian, with Coastwise second and Ravens third. Twenty-six horses ran. Among the unplaced starters were H. P. Whitney's Yorkville Belle and August Belmont's Hasty Pudding.

CANADIAN COLT FOR 1911 DERBY.

Toronto, Ont., March 15.—Raymond M. Dale, of South Qu'Appelle, Assiniboia, will ship to England shortly a two-year-old bay colt by Cinderello, which is to be trained for next year's Epsom Derby. The colt is Saskatchewan-bred, and this is the first time a Canadian owner has set himself the highest honor of the racing world as his goal. Mr. Dale has been fortunate in securing for his colt a place in the pretentious training stable of Sam Darling at Beckhampton. Darling trains for such owners as Lord Rosebery, the Duke of Devonshire, Captain Greer and Lord Lonsdale and his patrons also include the business circles of Cincinnati, Carroll, James R. Keene and J. E. Widener. Darling has about fifty horses in preparation for this season's racing. Kelston, the colt's sire, is a Longfellow horse, whose dam, Annette, carried the colors of Boyle & Littlefield a score of years ago and ran in hurdle races. She won the last hurdle race ever run at Woodbine. Annette's sire, Strachino, was in the stud at Woodstock, and left a vast amount of good stock in Oxford and the neighboring counties. On the dam's side the Derby candidate receives the blood of one of the most prepotent of English families, the Bend Or line of Stockwell, crossed with a stout American line. His pedigree, of course, does not read as attractively as those of the choice results of the great English and Irish stud farms, but "dark" horses have won the Derby before this, and it is one of the fascinations of the turf that the horse of "the little man" has always the chance to beat the champion of the greatest and richest breeding establishment.

RESTORING CONFIDENCE AT LATONIA.

Cincinnati, O., March 15.—"The Latonia Jockey Club is going to make every effort to re-establish public confidence in racing," the Enquirer quotes John Hachmeister as saying after the club held its annual meeting recently. "We understand thoroughly why the Latonia races lost caste with the public. There was not one reason, but many. Everyone knows that it is an uphill job, this kindling of a racing spirit, but it is going to be given a fair trial. There is not much, if anything, in it for the owners of the track, but they are willing to take the chance. The betting will be done through pari-mutuels, and this will, to an extent, cut down the professional players. This will not affect the status of the sport, but will be felt in the construction. Bookmakers and their help were largely responsible for this, and much of the alleged scandal of the race track came from hotel lobbies where the men that laid the odds wanted to make themselves appear as smarter than anyone else and each wiser than his fellow layer. The Latonia meeting will be run just as it is heralded, winner or loser."

TAMPA LAYERS HARD HIT

NUMEROUS GOOD THINGS GO THROUGH TO DELIGHT OF SMART SET.

San Gil Wins Race Under Circumstances That Create Much Comment—Starter Dade Off for Kentucky.

Tampa, Fla., March 15.—Adverse comment followed the running of the fourth race at the Tampa Bay track today, won by San Gil. The unnaturally short price eagerly accepted on the winner, coupled with the ride that Carroll gave Ormuz, supposedly the most formidable contender, seemingly justified the criticism. San Gil might have won under any circumstances, but the easy manner in which he scored in consequence of lack of serious contention from the others, caused the talk. Report had it that San Gil was heavily backed throughout the country. The winner went into a long lead with the rising of the barrier and was never in danger. Ormuz and Tamar measured strides during the first three-eighths in closest pursuit, with Flora Riley trailing distantly. At the stretch turn Carroll, on Ormuz, forced Tamar wide and this enabled Flora Riley to get into serious contention for the place, but under Braumon's listless effort she succumbed to Tamar in the last stride. The judges promptly suspended Carroll.

Good things galore were put over by the sharps during the afternoon and the layers were mulcted on a large sum. Their troubles began with the opening dash, when Marie Miss, hammered down from an opening of 5 to 2, went to the post at 4 to 5. Reports industriously circulated to the effect that she was on the verge of breaking down accounted for the long opening odds. She won with ease.

The redeeming feature of the sport came in the fifth race, when Ramon Corona, Baleshed and Alvis furnished a spirited struggle and landed noses apart.

Necklet and Percy Taylor, in the second, also furnished an interesting battle for the purse, the Schreiber filly winning in the last stride. Alberta H. and Merise were two choices that failed.

Before departing for Henderson, Ky., tonight, starter Dade assured General Manager Stride that he would return for the meeting next season if his services should be wanted. Starter Dade's work this winter has been above criticism. William Snyder will do the starting, beginning tomorrow.

J. T. Temple shipped five horses, including Billie Hills, Ortega and Brookline, to Jamestown, Va., for the meeting which begins there April 1. M. Barlow will go to the same place at the close of racing here.

C. E. Patterson will take Kercheval and Pirate Diana to Jacksonville at the close of the meeting here to fill in the time before the opening at Lexington.

DETAILS OF LEXINGTON RACING.

Directors of Kentucky Association Decide Upon Program for Approaching Meeting.

Lexington, Ky., March 15.—President J. N. Camden, Secretary O. D. Wilson and directors Irving H. Wheatcroft, Matt J. Winn, John McClinton, Overton H. Chennault and D. Gray Fomer of the Kentucky Association, met here today and formulated plans for the local spring meeting, which will open April 30 and continue seven days. William H. Shelley, of Louisville, was elected racing secretary for the meeting, he having performed the duties of that office so acceptably last spring. It was decided that there shall be no purse of less than $300 and that there shall be a stake or handicap attraction of not less than $500 each day.

The Breeders' Futurity, for two-year-olds, will be run April 30. The Camden Handicap, for three-year-olds, at a mile and an eighth, a preliminary to the Kentucky Derby, will be decided May 3. The Breeders' Futurity Consolation will be run May 5, and the Camden Handicap Consolation May 7, the losing day of the meeting. These two races will be worth $300 each. The Phoenix and Handicap and the Lexington Brewing Company Handicap, each worth $500, will be decided on May 2 and May 6, respectively. There will be a cup race as the feature for May 4.

The weights for the Camden Handicap will be announced April 15, and Messrs. Lyman H. Davis, William H. Shelley and Thomas R. Cronwell were appointed a committee to do the handicapping.

Eugene Elrod will, as at previous meetings since the introduction of the pari-mutuel system, have charge of the betting ring. There will be no paid presiding judge. The judges will be selected each day from the ranks of the horsemen in attendance. The employment of a starter was left to Colonel Winn.

The directors are particularly pleased with the prospects for a successful meeting here this spring.

COLONEL PATE GETS MEXICAN CONCESSION.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 15.—Judge Joseph A. Murphy is in receipt of a letter from Colonel R. C. Pate, of St. Louis, asking him to accept an interest in and take charge of a twenty-year concession for winter racing in the City of Mexico. Colonel Pate was the pioneer of racing in the Mexican republic, and sank his fortune in a venture there twenty years ago, being that much ahead of the times. They say that President Diaz never forgave him, and when Colonel Pate called on him recently he was cordially received.

"I remember you well, Colonel Pate," President Diaz is quoted as saying. "You sank your fortune here because your transportation was bad, and you were a little ahead of the times. Instead of abusing us and our country you lauded us to the skies, and said that you were yourself to blame for the failure. You can have another concession, and I hope to see you recoup your fortune."

Colonel Pate writes that he will profit by his former mistakes, and that he has an option on a piece of land within walking distance of the heart of the city. When he first went to Mexico there were no thoroughbred horses there. During the last ten years over five hundred have been imported from this country, and many wealthy and influential Mexicans now boast of quite pretentious stables. Mexico City, too, has grown into a thriving city of 400,000 people, which embraces a foreign colony of 100,000, of which 20,000 are Americans.

Colonel Pate also calls attention to the fact that the concession is practically irrevocable, and that the racing people are immune from meddling politicians and fake reformers. The concession carries with it the right to bet by pari-mutuel or book-making method.

THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

To S. Davis, an apprentice who is riding at Jacksonville, fell the stable honors among American jockeys last week. During the preceding weeks of 1910 Davis had been achieving only a moderate degree of success. On the Canadian circuit last summer Davis gave promise of developing into a more than ordinarily useful rider and it may be that his recent return to good form presages the fulfillment of his earlier promise. A powers, who heads the list, added five winning mounts to his score and now enjoys a comfortable lead. The record of the thirty leading jockeys from January 1 to and including the racing of Saturday last is as follows:

NEWSY ITEMS FROM ABROAD.

London, Eng., March 16.—A recent strike of stable boys of the stables around the Berlin racing stables was broken up in novel fashion. The boys struck for higher wages, with a minimum of $1 weekly, and seemed to be in a fair way to win when the treasurer of the union closed without it the strikers were helpless and at once returned to work at their old wages.

Foxhall Keene's Preceptor II., engaged in the Grand National, has arrived at Melton Mowbray, to be prepared by Lady Keene for the campaign located at Epsom's establishment. Lewes, until the race, in which Decey will probably have the mount. Through the same avenues went Lutterer
III., last year's winner.

The Due de Talleyrand et Sagan, who has died in Paris in his seventy-eighth year, was a keen lover of sport, and retained until his death the presidency of the Autenil Steeplechase Society.

Bonnie II., one of the French candidates for the Grand National, has left for England, and will be prepared by Essett's establishment. Lewes, until the race, in which Decey will probably have the
mount. Through the same avenues went Lutterer
III., last year's winner.

Parliament, the French cross-country jockey, has been engaged to ride one of T. Coulthwaite's representatives in the Grand National. Parliament rode Lutterer III. to victory last year.

Major Loder's yearling by Spearpoint, out of Admiral, and half brother to Pretty Polly and Admiral Hawk, has been named Coriander.

Mr. Miklos de Szemere, the well-known Hungarian sportsman, is seeking to establish horse races at Constantinople, in Turkey. He has many acquaintances among the leading young Turks, who are not unfavorably disposed towards this innovation, and a Constantinople Derby, a Turkish Oaks, or even a Golden Horn St. Leger may be by no means such air castles as they seem to be at first.

A. Anthony, who rode his master's Ambush II.
to victory in the Liverpool Grand National eleven years ago, will this month have the mount on Judas, which finished second in 1909.

CHINN TO TRAIN FOR DRAKE.

New York, March 15.—John A. Drake's return to the turf will be on a large scale. In addition to the two-year-olds by Ort Wells that Enoch Wishard is training at Sheepshead Bay, Mr. Drake will race some high-class selling platers and handicap horses that will be handled by P. T. Chinn. When Mr.
Chinn sold his stable recently, the prospect that were to go to work here, Mr. Chinn has decided not soon to go to France and, as he has a contract on the services of Vincent Powers, this crack jockey will probably ride the Drake horses.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

G. C. Bennett's good mare, Dishabille, has foaled a chestnut filly by Santa Santa.

Twenty-one of the 165 eligibles for this year's Epsom Derby are trained in France.

Manola Mason, dam of McChesney and First Water, has been mated with Cumar.

W. K. Vanderbilt's success in France continues.
On Sunday his Bat's Delight won an important race at Auteuil.

Seth, a half-brother to J. C. Core, is the biggest Adam two-year-old in the country. His weight exceeds 1,100 pounds.

Clarence Mackay's Hastings mares, Gunfire and Whimsical, will be mated with Broomstick and Hamburg, respectively, this spring.

I. H. Wheatcroft has shipped his mares, Ora
Bailey, Esteem and Tasmania, to Barney Schreiber's
Missouri farm for mating with Sain.

Barney Schreiber's Nealon and Jack Atkin will shortly be shipped north to be prepared for their stake engagements on the metropolitan circuit.

Senator Agnew has introduced in the upper branch of the New York legislature the bills aimed at oral betting that were presented in the assembly immediately following Governor Hughes' recommendations for legislation to that end.

Winner—Br. f. by Bannockburn—Grand Lady (trained by W. Whalen).
Went to post at 3:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Necklet was outpaced for the first quarter, then moved up fast and outpaced Percy Taylor in the closing strides. Percy Taylor, away forwardly, moved into the lead at once, but tired slightly in the last few strides. Restless Lady was away slowly and closed a big gap and but for her saddle slipping would have been close up. Alberta H. was interfered with at the start and only ran fairly well. Firebrand showed speed, but quit in the last quarter. Lady Helen quit. The winner was entered for $300; no bid.

Winner—Ch. g. by Ethelbert—American Beauty, by Powhattan (trained by M. J. Daly).
Went to post at 4:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Ramon Corona moved up steadily from the beginning, saved ground in the stretch turn and got up in the last stride after a sharp drive. Baleshed, after showing the most early speed, held on gamely and was unlucky to lose. Alvie appeared a certain winner in the last sixteenth, but tired slightly in the last few strides. Temper suffered from interference, but ran a poor race. Belle of the Ball and Eminola quit in the last furlong. The winner was entered for $300; no bid.
